

Wise Men or No Wise Men?

It has come to my attention that there seems to be some misconceptions about the 3 wise men and the North Star among my Brothers and Sisters.

After hearing it preached that "The 3 Wise Men" story was not true, I was deeply saddened. I heard some of my Brothers say there were no wise men at all and a star was not used. I am compelled to clarify for myself, and my Brothers and Sisters that this message is only partly correct. As the traditional story goes, there were 3 wise men bearing gifts and the North Star guided them to the manger.

After reviewing Matthew 2:1-12 (KJV), [see verse reference below this article] it is clear that there were wise men and there was a star that indeed guided the wise men to the baby Jesus in a house (manger).

In prayer to the Holy Spirit to guide my heart, mind, and hand, I contemplated on the whole nativity scene and I believe it is clear that God needed a way to provide money and other essentials to Mary and Joseph as they were on the run with baby Jesus from King Herod. Herod was trying to find and kill Jesus. In fact, in a most barbaric way, King Herod ordered all babies 2 years old and under to be killed, including all the pregnant mom's babies; absolutely horrid. Being on the run takes money and tradable resources. Gold, frankincense and myrrh were appropriate commodities for quick bartering.

The wise men were not just some people who gave gifts. It was the means by which God gave Joseph and Mary and baby Jesus what they needed.

I talked to our Brothers and Sisters who are very familiar with the Bible, about 100 times more than myself. They said that, as in Matthew, yes, there were wise men and a guiding star, but not the non biblical version of 3 wise men and the North Star. It's not that there was no chance that it was the North Star and 3 wise men, but, as they said, it doesn't say those details in the Bible. We therefore cannot conclude a specific number of wise men, except plural, and no particular star was used.

The storied version had precisely 3 wise men in a non biblical story form, probably because there were 3 types of gifts given. Each wise man would bear one. But most likely a group of wise men delivered the 3 gifts together.

The star was probably a star shining in the region that God made brighter and He controlled its guidance to lead the wise men to the baby Jesus in the manger.

So if we ignore the storied version, we get a clear and accurate account from the Bible of what actually happened to help Mary and Joseph and baby Jesus stay safe during birth and in fleeing from King Herod.

My Brothers and Sisters of Christ, I hope that with an accurate account of these divine events, this will enlighten us all to the volatile conditions surrounding the birth of Jesus, and yet how protected Jesus, Mary and Joseph really were by the glorious and almighty God.

Dear Lord, through the Holy Spirit, may we understand and meditate that, yes! the events of the birth of Jesus according to your scriptures were valid and amazing. Lord this included the role and timing of some wise men and the incomprehensible Divine Providence of You Lord God using a star You had created when You made the universe, to guide these wise men. We praise and glorify You Oh Lord, in Jesus name. Amen.
